What does it Mean

The Custom House organ, which supported and was delighted with Mr Harding's election last year, and until recently has professed to have the most entire confidence in him published last week the following surprising statement If true, it develops a novel mode of securing high office which seems to have met the approbation of the liberal editor why he exposes the secret machinery at this time is a slight mystery to those who do not understand his petty schemes for stumping to control political affairs in this State for his personal and family benefit We have some interesting correspondence, relating to this matter, which we shall publish at an early day—till then, we leave the statement with our readers

It is a matter of wonder to many how Harding came to be elected to the United States Senate, when it is a well known fact that not one-tenth of the votes of your State desired or would have voted for him Well it would be a long story to relate all his tricks but I will tell you one which helped more to defeat your electing him, and may serve to put you on his track

You well know that Col Baker was admired—yes loved by his Republican friends, and consequently odious to anything tinged with treason So he was murdered—yes, by deep, preconcerted plot laid weeks before hand, he was murdered to make the way clear for one of these heartless devils of the defunct party And now came the struggle among themselves who should have it Freemen's end, Harding privately showed to Baker and others a letter which purported to have been written by Baker a few days before his death earnestly desiring that Harding shall be his successor, as he (Baker) knew that he was to be killed Of consistency where was it? These Republicans were honest and sincere politicians would say, simple minded, and readily led astray by designing men who had sacrificed their friend to secure the election of their favorite Senator, the cloak for the man who no believed he desired What Harding has done you know, what he will continue to do you can pretty safely judge from his present unsteady unsettled and non committal course, for if a man is loyal and devoted to the cause of his country he will have no hesitation in showing it under all circumstances, and especially to a constituency that is continually demanding to know his position You see he has already bartered and sold some of Baker's choices, and you may be assured that if his influence is sufficient he will remove all of them who do not succumb to his pet idea of reconstructing the Democratic party in Oregon

Custom House Logic

The badly bothered collector attempts in a column of senseless gabble to justify his foolish letter in regard to exports to Victoria, he finds fault that his example of lofty patriotism is not followed by the Government, which still allows produce to go to English ports makes it as clear as mud that it is perfectly right and loyal to buy and import British merchandise with gold at a large premium, but very naughty to send abroad in place of coin, the articles which we raise and wish to sell for our own profit, and goes off in a mad rant about British sympathy, as though Oregon or the United States sold their peas, bran, wheat and corn for some purpose beside their own advantage and to increase their ability to defend themselves against foreign foes or domestic insurrection He denies that it is the business of custom house officers 'in these perilous times, to promote foreign trade and commerce," though he does not pretend to say what they are expected to do, especially at Astoria, and as they have nothing else to do in the great Eastern ports, we don't believe the Treasury Department expects anything more from him

His whole article is the manifest work of a foolish demagogue and liar, who to hide his own blunder and fault, does not scruple to impute base motives, which he knows do not exist, to others His oft repeated falsehood in regard to disappointed applicants for office is a natural charge from one who to buy his political position, sold his own little integrity, and judging others by himself, seems to imagine that what has such charms for him must fascinate them or it is made for the purpose of diverting attention from his own rascality as though if true, it afforded him any excuse for his misconduct meantime and vile slanders upon every one who presumes to scout his supreme interested and selfish course in political affairs

THE FAMILY AT LOOKINGGLASS —Harry's organ at Olympia severely scores Collector at Astoria for his defense of Victor Smith which the Standard says is entirely mistaken in all its assumptions and winds up with giving his official brother a slap in the face as follows

We claim to understand the state of things resulting from this best embargo better than our contemporary and we regret to find that if he is disposed to retain cordial relations with us people he will hereafter be more careful to refer the latest Free venturing to speak for that section, spirit and frame of Victor Smith

NEW Collectorate ing you are republican only Of Hon y your letter from and to adjutancy is the scheme of mischief to the public and of mutual gain Make your future assumptions in accordance with the plats of the Surveyor General or you will wake up some fine morning, and find another man Collector

Letter from Auburn.

[FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT]

AUBURN August 11 186

We have begun to see light in the future, as the first instalment of water from the Pine Creek Ditch found its way into our camp last week Not much to cry much on itself, but grateful to us and camp, accompanied by as princes from the camp that they will soon furnish a much more abundant supply During the past week or so the camp has been winning its daily way to all the world country, not may having as yet visited Auburn but we will have or show for all that There have been sundry excitements about quartz leads in different directions Some black looking rock from a lead up Powder river, well pulverized and washed in a pan yielded a remarkable return gold and judging from the rock from the prospectors imagine they could smell silver in the depths below This rock assayed in Portland, is said to yield about $350 per ton in gold There is no doubt in the world that ultimately some of these leads will furnish profitable employ for a large number of mills, but it requires time and capital to develop the resources of this mountain country The capital will grow here in time with the placer diggings Commence to be thoroughly worked

Powder River Valley is already assuming the important position we hoped for it It is rapidly a good farming and gardening spot Yesterday the regular market wagon from Powder River, stopped at my door with fine specimens of potatoes, cabbage, turnips, beans, peas and onions Just think how such a visit as that would affect your disposition to the mountains, when you had to make three months such a journey as junk and for luxuries like we who have settled there express themselves as much pleased with the soil and as highly satisfied with their prospects All the vegetables have thriven well and lately oats and even corn have exceeded expectations Now this is quite important as many feared the cultivation of this valley was a thing of the future and gardens to raise while this summer's experience proves the contrary and we have a large body of good agricultural land, open to cultivation, and offering homes to thousands and that too upon a tour ugh fare to be forever travelled by many thousands coming and going from the gold fields

While I write the cold air of the morning pens of summer waning and its welcome, as we have experienced some very uncomfortably hot weather

Our old friend Enoch Fruit, has succeeded in making a raise of some forty head horses and cattle which he has sent to Utah The fresh arrivals from Grant and surrounding counties having in a measure reduced the business to very much the state of Harney, recovered from his flirtation with Carter leaving around the Wasco Perry until the proprietor finding business quite a drawback to travel and him very liberally to leave, and since then he has been busily engaged in trade, as his success has been Some time since the delivery of Flour gave the street of one Enoch has interested for a night and like of some 500 Now it appears that the same unlucky individual is the particular friend of ours, who having resided for about one year in Auburn fomented riots, bred disturbances, cheated his creditors in the handsomest manner possible and drew his revolver on numerous occasions finally found it best to leave us to our fate just at the moment the Grand Jury met and his escapade at Portland made it befitting and to his Oregon career The so distant Capt Johnson to hear him tell it, had been a famous man in modern warfare had devastated whole counties of Virginia, Maryland State, hanged traitors by the neck on his own account, figured at the battle of Big Bethel and been finally captured and paroled at Hatteras, after which, shaking Old Abe by the hand, being too dangerous a man to be exchanged and disregarding the offers of executive favor, he made tracks hither—Steve Johnson assumed to be a leader among the people, and eminently distinguished himself by inciting the mob that hung the Mexican last fall From that pinnacle of glory he descended step by step until he became almost an out-cast in our midst, belligerent to the best, and flourishing his revolver in the face of peaceable citizens that he did not fear Having in the outset succeeded in getting a credit below, he handsomely swindled his creditors out of some thousands, eking out his own dishonesty by the aid of a little legal talent that are ready to go him halves in any profitable operation During a short sojourn at Boise last winter, Johnson ran across Bill Mayfield who took the conceit out of him, revolver and all, and deliberately took out his knife and placed his mark on him, gushing his head in a place not to settle an old score incurred during the Mexican scrape at Auburn Johnson conveniently made tracks for Auburn again after this occurrence and has now found it good policy in Oregon at all events No doubt he will again examine the pictures in Frank Leslie until some new character suggests to perpetrate, and he will accomplish some other scrape with his heroic deeds I have little sympathy with his creditors A man frequently gets credit by being a tremendous blow when the honest man would be directly refused and such creditors merchants do well to suffer loss by

I hear of three parties that have been found murdered, no doubt by the Indians on the Mullner to the south One party of seven men on the California trail from Yreka to Eugene City and some others found by prospectors Several parties are unheard of that were coming from the Oxygee to this place, and no doubt many valuable lives have been lost by the Indians all this upon strictly fair and from the military department in order to protect miners and travelers in that part of the State

VALLEY CHAMPION Stock Declining —The Yreka Union (Cal) Journal of the 1st inst says in possession of indisputable proof which it cannot probably make use of that Valentine Giglamp is not a rebel at heart and would now be in the Confederate army or navy of the Southern Confederacy but that he can do more service to the cause by remaining in the North We'd rather our enemies to be but here and our presence cannot fail to fire at the rebels than to use them to promote insurrection

PACIFIC DIVISION OF THE SANITARY COMMISSION —The following list of subscriptions to the Pacific Sanitary Commission for the relief of sick and wounded soldiers and sailors of the United States, Citizens of California by Ladies One treasurer $10,000 [illegible] of Portland Oregon, by Amy Hull [illegible] 100 The aggregate of the contributions during the time indicated is about $40 000 —Corr S F Bulletin

COMMON COUNCIL met last night Present Lucas, Knott Saxer Watson, Austin Monastes and the President

Petition of S D Smith, to use a portion of Morrison street thirty days, for building purposes, was granted

Petition to continue the grading of Washington street and build sidewalks thereon was referred to the appropriate committee

The Committee on Ways and Means, to whom was referred the assessment roll for the present year, reported that "after a careful examination they find said roll is without form or system and very incomplete—some property being omitted while some other is assessed double and some treble and that the laws for the government of assessors have been almost entirely disregarded," and offered the following resolution which was adopted

Resolved That F C Pomeroy, City Assessor be and is hereby instructed and directed to proceed forthwith and as ess all the taxable property real and personal, within the limits of the city of Portland in strict accordance with the resolution passed by the Common Council on the 17th day of June 1863, and return to the Common Council, a full and complete assessment roll, on or before the 23d day of September next

The following bills were ordered paid Committee of Arrangements for celebrating the last fourth of July, $150, Daily Times, $52, C H Myers, $12 87

An ordinance to establish the grade of Jefferson street was read a second time and laid over under the rules

And ordinance to grade the Public Square and the streets adjoining the same and building sidewalks, was read first and second times The ordinance provides that the work shall be let out to the lowest bidder, under the supervision of the City Surveyor

A resolution instructing the City Marshal to have the city lamps repaired and put back on the lamp posts, was lost after considerable debate by a vote of 4 to 3

A resolution instructing the Street Commissioner to complete the crossing at Front and Taylor streets was carried

DANGEROUS SPORT AND BUCK AGGIE —We regret to learn that one of our most accomplished and successful sportsmen, while at Clatsop, on an Elk hunt, shot one of Mr Lattie's oxen by mistake supposing of course that he was firing at the branch horned animal The difficulty was readily adjusted, but the sportsmen has not brought the horns which he promised to give us Names are not given, but they are in our memorandum

CIRCUIT COURT —Lownsdale vs Coffin and Chapman —This suit involving the title to nearly all the western portion of the Portland land claim, was yesterday submitted on the papers to his Honor Judge Shattuck, who rendered a decree pro forma, for defendant Coffin, and the decision heretofore made on demurrer, was decided in favor of Chapman An appeal was taken by the plaintiff to the Supreme Court

GOLD DUST —Wells Fargo & Co's messenger on the Julia brought down, last evening, seventy five pounds of gold dust From what we could learn there was an unusually large amount of the precious ore in the hands of returned miners

THEATER —Shakspeare's great tragedy of "Richard III, or the Battle of Bosworth Field," will be presented this evening, Mr Waldron appearing as Richard, Mortimer as Richmond, and Miss Mitchell as the Queen This is an old and splendid tragedy, and being performed by a talented company, should draw a full house The curtain will rise at 8 o'clock hereafter, being half an hour earlier than heretofore

WHERE THE MOB CAME FROM.—The New York Evening Post, of July 27th, says the following is in circulation

VOTE OF GOV SEYMOUR & H FRIENDS, NOVEMBER, 1862

	Seymour	Wadsworth
Mackerelville	5*0	33
Five Points	812	55
Chatham & Hook	36.	40
Water street dance house	380	12
Thirty three other districts of equal respectability	10 55*	1 52
Total	12,664	1 691

Seymour's majority, 10,981, or more than his entire majority in the State

These election districts figure on our police books as containing two thousand seven hundred and forty three groggeries, two hundred and seventy nine notorious brothels one hundred and seventy places where thieves and ruffians habitually resort, one hundred and five police shops, with gambling and dance houses to match, and also embrace the haunts of the murderers robbers and incendiaries who figured in the recent Reign of Terror

A NEW DISCOVERY —We understand that Heuston, Hastings & Co of San Francisco have discovered the Philosopher's Stone The secret is this attending closely to business having one price, and selling only the best kind of goods Following strictly this system has made them what they are, viz 'The best Clothiers in New York and California'

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®
NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

NOBLE LETTER FROM EX-GOV. BAKER OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.—Ex-Gov. Nathaniel B. Baker of New Hampshire, who is now Adjutant General of Iowa, has written an eloquent letter to a friend in New Hampshire upon the duty of citizens. Governor Baker has been a life long Democrat, and was one of the most popular men connected with that party in New Hampshire. He has many friends in that State who will glory in his patriotism and profit by his example. In the course of his letter he says:

Your views of "party squabbles" for power merely, in this hour of our country's deepest trial, coincide with mine. From the day that the boom of the first rebel cannon re-echoed from Fort Sumter I took my stand against secession and rebellion, and for the Government, and there I shall stand to the end. It is the platform upon which I always stood, and the first and all the lessons of Democracy which I have learned taught me to stand there firmly. I propose no conditions to my loyalty. I may have differed from the Administration in some points on the conduct of the war, but that should make no difference with a man if he intends to give the Government his unwavering support.

I shall not make public declarations in favor of a vigorous prosecution of the war to suppress the rebellion, and then publicly or privately utter traitorous and bitter denunciations of the President and the Government.

I have no faith in the man who says he supports the Government, and finds fault because there were calls for volunteers. I do not credit the man who says he is loyal, and opposes volunteering, taxation, issuing bills of credit, conscription, and all the methods to raise armies and means to sustain the nation. The man who finds fault with every effort of the Government to sustain itself, and then declares himself a Union man, must be either non compos, or false-hearted and a falsifier of his own opinions. I never could distinguish the difference between one of this class "supporters" of the Government and an avowed disunionist, except in this—the latter had the most honesty, and the former the most impudence.

There are a class of ardent supporters of the Constitution as it is and the Union as it was," who proposed a new Government with New England left "out in the cold," and that class of men in the West would have hailed with delight the triumph of the Democratic party in New Hampshire at the late election—not that they cared for the State or the Democracy there, for they had expressed their contempt of the one and cared little for the other. They merely wanted the success of the leaders in New Hampshire, as a sign that they (out West) were supported in their opposition to the Government. I regret to say that if some of the published quotations from speeches made in New Hampshire were correct, they would compare favorably as specimens of disloyalty uttered by the haters of New England in the West.

The vilifier of the Government and New England, and the citizen of New England who is the vilifier of the Government, would seem to make a loving fraternity. I have always voted the Democratic ticket, but if I had been among my native hills at the time of the late election there, no act of mine should have in any way been construed into a support of the men in other parts of the Union who have defamed New England and her institutions, vilified and reviled the President, and abused and denounced the Government which protects them.

RATHER A MISUNDERSTANDING.—Mr. Pilkinston, a small farmer in Pennsylvania, was sometime ago drafted for the service of his country. His wife, though she possessed but a small stock of general information, as one of the best conjugal partners, and she was much troubled at the thought of parting with her husband. As she was engaged in scrubbing off her door steps, a rough looking stranger came up and thus addressed her:

"I hear, madam, that your husband has been drafted."

"Yes, sir, he has," answered Mrs. Pilkinston, "though, dear knows, there's few men that couldn't be better spared from their families."

"Well, ma'am, I've come to offer myself as a substitute for him."

"A what?" asked Mrs. Pilkinston, with some excitement.

"I'm willing to take his place," said the stranger.

"You take the place of my husband, you wretch! I'll teach you to insult a distressed woman that way, you vagabond!" cried Mrs Pilkinston, as she discharged the dirty soap suds in the face of the discomfited and astonished substitute, who took to his heels just in time to escape having his head broken by the bucket.

Aunt E. was trying to persuade little Eddy to retire at sundown:

"You see, my dear, how the little chickens go to roost at that time."

"Yes, aunty," replied Eddy, "but the old hen always goes with them."

Aunty tried no more arguments with him.

"Pap," observed a young urchin of tender years, to his fond parent, "does the Lord know everything?"

"Yes, my son," replied the hopeful sire; "but why do you ask that question?"

"Because Deacon Jones, when he prays, is so long telling him everything, I thought he wasn't posted!" The parent reflected.

"I expect," said a young physician, on his way to Jamaica, on hearing exaggerated rumors of the cholera, to witness a great many death-bed scenes this summer."

"Doubtless," replied a friend, "if you get much practice."

A column of infantry will generally pass over about five miles in two hours, halts included. A column of cavalry at a walk and trot alternately, makes about six miles per hour.

OFFICIAL.

LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES.

Passed at the Third Session of the Thirty-Seventh Congress.

[PUBLIC—No. 75.]

AN ACT to amend an act entitled "An act for the collection of direct taxes in insurrectionary districts within the United States and for other purposes," approved June 7, 1862.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the 7th section of an act entitled "An act for the collection of direct taxes in insurrectionary districts within the United States and for other purposes," approved June 7, 1862, be amended so as to read as follows: Section 7. And be it further enacted, That the said Board of Commissioners shall cause the taxes charged upon the said lots and parcels of land shall not be paid, as provided for in the third section of this act, to cause the same to be advertised for sale in a newspaper published in the town, parish, district, or county where situate; and if there be no such newspaper published in said town, parish, district or county, it shall be the duty of the publisher thereof to publish the same in any other newspaper published by said commissioners in said district, or in the city of Washington, for at least four weeks, and by posting notices of said sale in three public places in the town, parish district in county within which said lands are situate, at least four weeks previous to the day of sale; and if the taxes and penalties and costs to cause the same to be severally sold to the highest bidder for a sum not less than the taxes, penalty and costs, and ten per centum per annum interest on said tax, pursuant to said notice; and if none be offered for any of said lots or parcels of ground, shall so return the same to the said Board of Commissioners, and pay the amount of said tax, with ten per centum interest thereon, with the cost of advertising the same, or request the same to be struck off to a purchaser for a less sum than two thirds the assessed value of said several lots or parcels of ground, the said commissioners shall be authorized at said sale to bid off the same for the United States at a sum not exceeding two thirds of the assessed value thereof, unless some person shall bid a larger sum; and in that case the same shall be struck off to the highest bidder, who shall, upon paying the purchase money in gold and silver coin, or in the Treasury notes of the United States, or in United States stock, be in full discharged of all indebtedness against the United States. Be it further enacted, That the said commissioners shall receive from said commissioners their certificate of sale; which said certificate shall be received in all courts and places as prima facie evidence of the regularity and validity of said sale, and of the title of the said purchaser or purchasers under the same: Provided, That the owner of said lots or parcels of any loyal person of the United States having any valid claim upon or interest in the same, may, at any time within sixty days after said sale, appear before the said Board of Tax Commissioners or his or her duly authorized agent, and, as a citizen, upon taking an oath to support the Constitution of the United States, and paying the amount of said tax and penalty, with interest thereon from the date of the said proclamation of the President mentioned in the 2d section of this act, at the rate of fifteen per centum per annum, together with the expenses of the sale and subsequent proceedings to be determined by said commissioners, may redeem said lots of land from said sale; and any purchaser under the stand having paid moneys, Treasury notes, or other certificates of indebtedness of the United States, shall, upon such redemption being made, be entitled to have the same, with the interest accruing after said sale, returned to him by the said commissioners, upon surrendering up the certificate of sale: And provided further, That if the owner of said lots of ground shall be a minor or non-resident alien, or loyal citizen beyond the seas, a person of unsound mind, or under a legal disability, the guardian, trustee, or other person having charge of the personal estate of such person, may redeem the same at any time within two years after the sale thereof, and the manner above provided, and with like effect: And provided further, That at such sale any tracts, parcels, or lots of land which may be selected under the direction of the President for Government use, for military, naval, or other purposes, or for charitable, educational, or police purposes, may at such sale, be bid in by the said commissioners, under the direction of the President, for and struck off to the United States: And provided further, That the certificate of said commissioners shall only be admitted as evidence of the regularity and validity of sale by establishing the fact that said property was not subject to taxes, or that taxes had been paid previous to sale, or that the property had been redeemed according to the provisions of this act.

Commission and Purchasing AGENT,

SAN FRANCISCO,

ORDERS FOR THE PURCHASE OF MERCHANDISE and articles of every description are solicited by the undersigned.

A residence in this city of over ten years, and an experience in the business of nearly the same length of time, are considered sufficient to warrant the confidence of persons in the country who contemplate making purchases here, through the agency of a reliable party; or who may be looking for a permanent agent in San Francisco. To either the advertiser offers his services, assuring all who intrust their commissions to him that no effort shall be spared to execute their commissions satisfactorily.

All Orders must be accompanied with the Cash or City Reference.

Those desiring information concerning the undersigned are referred to

Wm. T. Coleman & Co., San Francisco.
